ORDER

Adopted: November 20, 2009

Released: November 23, 2009

By the Deputy Chief, Consumer Policy Division, Consumer & Governmental Affairs Bureau:

1. In this Order, we consider the complaint¹ alleging that Cox Arizona Telecom, LLC (Cox) changed Complainant's telecommunications service provider without obtaining authorization and verification from Complainant in violation of the Commission's rules.² We conclude that Cox's actions violated the Commission's carrier change rules and we grant Complainant's complaint.

2. In December 1998, the Commission released the Section 258 Order in which it adopted rules to implement Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934 (Act), as amended by the Telecommunications Act of 1996 (1996 Act).³ Section 258 prohibits the practice of

Prior to the adoption of Section 258, the Commission had taken various steps to address the slamming problem. See, e.g., Policies and Rules Concerning Unauthorized Changes of Consumers' Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 94-129, Report and Order, 10 FCC Rcd 9560 (1995), stayed in part, 11 FCC Rcd 856 (1995); Policies and Rules Concerning Changing Long Distance Carriers, CC Docket No. 91-64, 7 FCC Rcd 1038 (1992), reconsideration denied, 8 FCC Rcd 3215 (1993); Investigation of Access and Divestiture Related Tariffs, CC Docket No. 83-1145, Phase I, 101 F.C.C.2d 911, 101 F.C.C.2d 935, reconsideration denied, 102 F.C.C.2d 503 (1985).

“slamming,” the submission or execution of an unauthorized change in a subscriber’s selection of a provider of telephone exchange service or telephone toll service.⁴ In the Section 258 Order, the Commission adopted aggressive new rules designed to take the profit out of slamming, broadened the scope of the slamming rules to encompass all carriers, and modified its existing requirements for the authorization and verification of preferred carrier changes. The rules require, among other things, that a carrier receive individual subscriber consent before a carrier change may occur.⁵ Pursuant to Section 258, carriers are absolutely barred from changing a customer's preferred local or long distance carrier without first complying with one of the Commission's verification procedures.⁶ Specifically, a carrier must: (1) obtain the subscriber's written or electronically signed authorization in a format that meets the requirements of Section 64.1130; (2) obtain confirmation from the subscriber via a toll-free number provided exclusively for the purpose of confirming orders electronically; or (3) utilize an independent third party to verify the subscriber's order.⁷

3. The Commission also has adopted liability rules. These rules require the carrier to absolve the subscriber where the subscriber has not paid his or her bill. In that context, if the subscriber has not already paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the subscriber is absolved of liability for charges imposed by the unauthorized carrier for service provided during the first 30 days after the unauthorized change.⁸ Where the subscriber has paid charges to the unauthorized carrier, the Commission’s rules require that the unauthorized carrier pay 150% of those charges to the authorized carrier, and the authorized carrier shall refund or credit to the subscriber 50% of all charges paid by the subscriber to the unauthorized carrier.⁹ Carriers should note that our actions in this order do not preclude the Commission from taking additional action, if warranted, pursuant to Section 503 of the Act.¹⁰

4. We received Complainant’s complaint on February 18, 2009, alleging that Complainant’s telecommunications service provider had been changed from Cox to AT&T, Inc. without Complainant’s authorization. Pursuant to Sections 1.719 and 64.1150 of the Commission’s rules¹¹ we notified AT&T of the complaint and AT&T responded on March 25,

⁸ See 47 C.F.R. §§ 64.1140, 64.1160. Any charges imposed by the unauthorized carrier on the subscriber for service provided after this 30-day period shall be paid by the subscriber to the authorized carrier at the rates the subscriber was paying to the authorized carrier at the time of the unauthorized change. Id.

2009.¹² AT&T states that although the customer's services were changed to AT&T in 2004, no records exist to provide further details concerning the customer's request for AT&T services. AT&T adds that Complainant's services were discontinued in May 2008, and the customer's services were not removed until August 26, 2008. Based on AT&T's response and pursuant to Sections 1.719 and 64.1150 of the Commission's rules,¹³ we notified Cox, Complainant's local exchange carrier, of the complaint, and Cox responded on June 8, 2009.¹⁴ Based on Cox's response, we sought further clarification,¹⁵ and Cox responded.¹⁶ Cox admits that a failure occurred in that there was a delay in assigning a correct PIC (preferred interexchange carrier) code. We find that this failure by Cox resulted in an unreasonable delay in Complainant's requested switch of services away from AT&T and to Cox.¹⁷ Therefore, we find that Cox's actions were in violation of our carrier change rules, and we discuss Cox's liability below.¹⁸

5. Pursuant to Section 64.1170(b) our rules, AT&T must forward to Cox an amount equal to 150% of all charges paid by the subscriber to AT&T along with copies of any telephone bills issued from AT&T to the Complainant.¹⁹ Within ten days of receipt of this amount, Cox shall provide a refund or credit to Complainant in the amount of 50% of all charges paid by Complainant to AT&T. Complainant has the option of asking Cox to re-rate AT&T charges based on Cox rates and, on behalf of Complainant, seek from AT&T, any re-rated amount exceeding 50% of all charges paid by Complainant to AT&T. Cox must also send a notice to the Commission, referencing this Order, stating that it has given a refund or credit to Complainant.²⁰ If Cox has not received the reimbursement required from AT&T within 45 days of the release of

Such filing will be deemed to relate back to the filing date of Complainant's informal complaint so long as the formal complaint is filed within 45 days from the date this order is mailed or delivered electronically to Complainant. this Order, Cox must notify the Commission and Complainant accordingly. Cox also must notify the Complainant of his or her right to pursue a claim against AT&T for a refund of all charges paid to AT&T.²¹

6. Accordingly, IT IS ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 258 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, 47 U.S.C. § 258, and Sections 0.141, 0.361 and 1.719 of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. §§ 0.141, 0.361, 1.719, the complaint filed against AT&T, Inc. IS GRANTED.

7. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that, pursuant to Section 64.1170(b) of the Commission's rules, 47 C.F.R. § 64.1170(b), that AT&T must forward to Cox an amount equal to 150% of all charges paid by the subscriber along with copies of any telephone bills issued from the company to the Complainant within ten (10) days of the release of this order.

8. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this Order is effective upon release.
